DAN SMOOT

FOURTH ROLL CALLS, 1965

In three previous issues of this Report, we tabulated 42 roll call votes in the national Congress — 21 in the Senate, 21 in the House ("First Roll Calls, 1965," May 31; "Second Roll Calls, 1965," June 14; "Third Roll Calls, 1965," August 2). Tabulations herein bring the total to 56 — 28 in the Senate, 28 in the House.

Thus far in 1965, only 26 Senators have earned conservative ratings of 60% or better (15 Republicans, 11 Democrats). Only four Senators (three Democrats, one Republican) have earned conservative ratings of 90% or better: Harry Flood Byrd and A. Willis Robertson (Virginia Democrats), 96%; Strom Thurmond (South Carolina Republican), 93%; and James O. Eastland (Mississippi Democrat), 92%.

To date, only 158 Representatives have earned conservative ratings of 60% or better.

The grim truth is that most members of Congress have sold out politically: they vote for harmful, unconstitutional programs, in return for political support believed necessary to keep them in their jobs. Outrageous legislation — which Congress rejected when proposed by President Kennedy — is now being enacted in response to President Johnson's pressures and deals.

Yet, the closeness of some votes on major issues is encouraging. A leading conservative Democrat has remarked privately that if conservatives can gain only 20 House seats in the 1966 elections, they will have enough strength to block Johnson administration programs. Facts indicate that he is right. In the 88th Congress (1963-1964) which rejected much of the Kennedy-Johnson legislative program, there were only 159 Representatives with conservative ratings of 60% or better. Of the 159 in the 88th Congress, none had 100% conservative ratings. Of the 158 who rate 60% or better now, 16 have 100% conservative voting records (nine Republicans, seven Democrats):

Alabama: Buchanan, Dickinson, Edwards, Martin (all Republicans)

Georgia: Callaway (Republican)

Iowa: Gross (Republican)

Americans who want to save their country from socialist dictatorship have an obvious job to do: find and elect constitutional conservatives to the House and Senate in 1966. Their first task is educational. They should inform themselves about the voting of members of Congress, and make maximum effort to inform others.

FOREIGN AID

On June 14, 1965, the Senate, by a stand of 73 to 25, passed the Foreign Assistance Act of 1965 (HR 7750) — authorizing $3.243 billion a year for the next two years. The vote is tabulated in Column 22 under Senate — C indicating a conservative stand against foreign aid.

On March 15, 1965, Representative Otto Passman (Louisiana Democrat, Chairman of the Foreign Operations Subcommittee on Appropriations) said:

"Our Government will be disbursing some type of foreign aid during Fiscal 1965 in 99 foreign nations and 9 territories. I contend that this program, in its present form, is uncontrolled and apparently uncontrollable. There are 71,416 individuals, including participants, on its payrolls. It has reached the point that even the confusers are confusing themselves. No program in the history of mankind has had as many paid lobbyists as the foreign aid program. It would take many, many pages, if not a book, to list the names of all individuals who are lobbying for or are recipients of the program."

On July 1, 1965, Representative Passman disclosed that total foreign aid for the 1966 fiscal year (aid authorized in other bills, in addition to the regular foreign aid bill) is $7,512,476,000.00. He revealed that total foreign aid available for fiscal 1966 (new funds authorized, plus funds authorized in previous years and carried forward because not yet used) is $10,605,738,000.00.

NATIONAL DEBT INCREASE

On June 16, 1965, the Senate (by a stand of 67 to 27) passed HR 8464, authorizing a "temporary" increase in the national debt level to $328 billion. This is the sixth "temporary" increase since the beginning of the Kennedy-Johnson era in January, 1961.

The vote is tabulated in Column 23 under Senate — C indicating a stand against increasing the national debt level. We tabulated the House vote on this in the August 2 Report.

MEDICARE AND SOCIAL SECURITY

On April 8, 1965, the House passed HR 6675, adding medical care benefits to social security, expanding present benefits, increasing social security taxes. We recorded this House vote in the June 14 Report.

On July 9, 1965, Senator Carl T. Curtis (Nebraska Republican) offered an amendment to delete medicare provisions from HR 6675. The Senate rejected the Curtis amendment by a stand of 67 to 29. This vote is tabulated in Column 24 under Senate — C indicating a conservative stand against adding medicare to social security.

On July 9, 1965, the Senate passed HR 6675, with the medicare provisions included, but different in some details from the House-passed version. This Senate vote is tabulated in Column 25 under Senate — C indicating a conservative stand against.

A House-Senate conference committee later agreed on a final version of HR 6675. Congress passed the bill; and President Johnson signed it into law on July 30, 1965. In a subsequent Report, we will tabulate both House and Senate votes on final passage.

HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

On June 30, 1965, the House, by a stand of

PRODUCED BY UNZ.ORG

213 to 208, refused to remove rent subsidy provisions from the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1965 (HR 7984). This vote is tabulated in Column 24 under House — C indicating a conservative vote against the rent subsidy scheme.

On June 30, 1965, the House, by a stand of 249 to 173, passed HR 7984 with the rent subsidy included. This vote is tabulated in Column 25 under House — C indicating a conservative vote against.

On July 15, 1965, the Senate, by a stand of 53 to 46, refused to remove rent subsidy from HR 7984. This vote is tabulated in Column 26 under Senate — C indicating a conservative vote against the rent subsidy.

On July 15, 1965, the Senate, by a stand of 64 to 35, passed HR 7984, with the rent subsidy included. This vote is tabulated in Column 27 under Senate—C indicating a conservative stand against.

A final conference version was later passed by both houses of Congress and signed by the President. Roll call on final passage in the House will be tabulated in a subsequent Report. Final passage in the Senate was by voice vote.

The Housing and Urban Development Act of 1965 is among the most harmful, most revolutionary pieces of legislation ever enacted by Congress. For details, see "Government Guaranteed Security," the July 19, 1965, issue of this Report.

D. C. HOME RULE

The Constitution provides that:

"[Congress shall have] exclusive Legislation in all Cases whatsoever, over such District . . . as may . . . become the Seat of the Government of the United States . . . ."

This means that Congress must be the real governing body of Washington, D. C. For many years, however, extreme liberals have advocated home rule for the District — that is, permitting citizens of the District to elect their own government.

Home rule for Washington, D. C. is obviously unconstitutional. It also violates American principles of representative government. In other cities, governments chosen by the people must impose taxes on the people. If Washington, D. C. had home rule, city politicians could buy votes for themselves by promising benefits to be paid, not by local taxation, but by grants from the national treasury.

This year, the perennial D. C. Home Rule bill is S 1118. Senator Peter H. Dominick (Colorado Republican) offered an amendment to S 1118, specifying that appropriations for the District of Columbia be made on an annual basis. On July 21, 1965, the Senate, by a stand of 51 to 43, rejected the Dominick amendment. This vote is tabulated in Column 28 under Senate — C indicating a conservative stand for subjecting District of Columbia appropriations to annual action by Congress.

S 1118 without the Dominick amendment permits the District of Columbia to draw — automatically, without congressional action — specified sums of tax money from the U. S. Treasury every year.

Congress has already abdicated much of its constitutional responsibility, delegating to the President and to executive agencies powers that were intended to rest only in the legislative branch. If S 1118 is passed, it could set a precedent for other bills, eventually making it possible for the vast federal bureaucracy to draw funds from the Treasury without congressional appropriations, leaving the elected Congress no control whatever over the squandering of our tax money.

The Senate passed S 1118 on July 22, but the House has not yet acted. The Senate vote on final passage will be tabulated in a subsequent Report.

HOUSING AND URBAN AFFAIRS DEPARTMENT

President Kennedy unsuccessfully urged Congress to create a new Department of Housing and Urban Affairs, to administer the federal government's various housing and urban renewal programs, city planning, mass transit subsidies, and other programs which are making the federal government the absolute master of our cities and states.

PRODUCED BY UNZ.ORG

On June 16, 1965, the House, by a stand of 228 to 195, passed HR 6927, which is President Johnson's bill for creating the new cabinet level Department. The Senate passed HR 6927 on August 11, 1965. Passage of HR 6927 is one more significant instance of Johnsonian success, where Kennedyism failed, in taking a major step toward totalitarian, centralized government. The Senate vote will be recorded in a subsequent Report.

A major argument for a Department of Housing and Urban affairs is that the Department would give city dwellers an equal chance with other special interest groups to exert pressures on the federal government, for programs favoring cities. For example, the House sponsor of this measure in 1961 said:

"You have the farm bloc that can scare politicians and make them jump, and we pass all kinds of legislation for it. Labor, Agriculture, and business have Cabinet spokesmen, and the city dwellers have none . . . . At long last, America's largest group of citizens would at least get a seat at that table, and it is certainly in my judgment past due."

The following quotation is from the Minority Views expressed by Senators who opposed creation of the new Department during committee hearings in June, 1961:

"Every pressure group in the nation, looking for Federal funds, wants to have its representative crowding to the President's cabinet table, not to advise and guide him on the problems of government, but to push for special favors for special interests . . . .

"We are, more and more, moving toward a directed economy in this country. The theory of those who support more Federal intervention is that Washington knows best, works best, pays best; and all lesser segments of government must change — they must reshape their concepts of self-determination, and accept the blueprint of the planners . . . .

"This new Department can eventually nullify local city government . . . .

"We will, in one sweeping gesture create a goliath which will drain our Treasury and which will keep a watchful, police eye on every urban community and its citizens, planning, spending, directing, until citizens will not call city hall when streets need repair, or a water main needs replacing, but will notify their Congressman to contact the cabinet member handling such problems."

Neither during 1961-2-3, nor in 1965, was any substantial notice given to the fact that all programs scheduled to be administered by the new Department are unconstitutional.

The June 16, 1965, House vote on HR 6927 is tabulated in Column 22 under House — C indicating a conservative stand against authorizing a Department of Housing and Urban Affairs.

ARA EXTENSION

On June 24, 1965, the House, by a stand of 224 to 167, passed HJ Res 541, authorizing a two-month extension of the Area Redevelopment Administration. The vote is tabulated in Column 23 under House — C indicating a conservative vote against extending ARA. The Senate approved the extension by voice vote.

During debates, Representative William B. Widnall (New Jersey Republican) said:

"Neither the ARA's past record nor its present status justify any extension of time for this agency. It is a matter of public record and public knowledge that the ARA has done less with more money than almost any other bureaucratic agency in history."

Congress created the Area Redevelopment Administration in 1961, to make loans and gifts of tax money to depressed areas. After four years, and the unconstitutional squandering of $435,000,000.00, ARA had failed grotesquely to provide the material blessings its sponsors had promised — and was scheduled to expire June 30, 1965. President Johnson asked for a new Economic Development Administration — which would incorporate activities of the ARA and add new ones. The two-month extension was intended to keep ARA alive until Congress approves the new EDA to take its place.

For details, see "Toward A Socialist Dictatorship," the July 5, 1965, issue of this Report.

VOTING RIGHTS BILL

On July 9, the House, by a stand of 220 to 206, rejected an amendment to HR 6400 (The Voting Rights Act of 1965) which would have forced states to grant the vote to persons who cannot read or write English, if the persons have a sixth grade education from a school conducted under the American flag. The vote is tabulated in Column 26 under House — C indicating a conservative stand against the amendment. The House passed HR 6400 by a stand of 336 to 88. This vote is tabulated in Column 27 under House. Senate and House roll call votes on final passage of the Voting Rights Act will be be tabulated in a subsequent Report.

GOVERNORS' VETO OF POVERTY WAR PROGRAMS

The Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 (President Johnson's Poverty War bill) gave state governors power to veto proposed federal anti-poverty programs affecting local or state governments. This was a sop to those who expressed fear that the poverty program would further undermine states rights. A few governors, exercising the veto power granted them in the Economic Opportunity Act, rejected certain federal anti-poverty programs proposed for their states.

On July 22, 1965, the House, by a stand of 239 to 190, voted to limit severely the veto power of state governors. The vote is recorded in Column 28 under House — L indicating a liberal vote against the governors' veto power.

For details on this, and related instances of the federal government dictating to state and local officials and overriding their wishes, see "Death Watch Of The Republic," the August 9, 1965, issue of this Report.

WHO IS DAN SMOOT?

Born in Missouri, reared in Texas, Dan Smoot went to SMU getting BA and MA degrees, 1938 and 1940. In 1941 he joined the faculty at Harvard as a Teaching Fellow, doing graduate work for a doctorate in American civilization. From 1942 to 1951, he was an FBI agent: three and a half years on communist investigations; two years on FBI headquarters staff; almost four years on general FBI cases in various places. He resigned from the FBI and, from 1951 to 1955, was commentator on national radio and television programs, giving both sides of controversial issues. In July, 1955, he started his present profit-supported, free-enterprise business: publishing The Dan Smoot Report, a weekly magazine available by subscription; and producing a weekly news-analysis radio and television broadcast, available for sponsorship by reputable business firms, as an advertising vehicle. The Report and broadcast give one side of important issues: the side that presents documented truth using the American Constitution as a yardstick. If you think Smoot's materials are effective against socialism and communism, you can help immensely — help get subscribers for the Report, commercial sponsors for the broadcast.
